LOUISVILLE, KY., SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 2, 1861.

TO-NIGHT! Working-men, Rally!! AT THE COURTHOUSE!!!

A Convention of Working-men of the Seventh Congressional District meets TOMORROW at the Courthouse. All working men are invited. By order of the Committee.

A MISERABLE DAY.—Yesterday was one of the most disagreeable days we ever experienced reportorially. It rained or drizzled almost incessantly; the mud was ankle deep everywhere, except in a few particular places; somebody had stolen our umbrella; we possessed a rent in one of our boots, and a rheumatic twinge in one of our feet; we had lost our gloves, and had neither cigars or tobacco; and on the whole were delectably miserable—"a damp, disagreeable body."

BREVITIES.—The Georgetown Female Seminary will commence its spring session on Monday next.

—Our account yesterday of a liaison at Jeffersonville between a widow and a bachelor was incorrect, as it is the bachelor who visits the widow, instead of the widow calling upon the bachelor.

—A drayman at New Orleans deliberately rolled a hogshead of sugar over the head of a little child recently, and killed it.

NE PLUS ULTRA.—One of the most pleasant parties of the season was given by the NE Plus Ultra Club on the evening of the 21st inst. The Club is composed of a few gentlemen for social pleasure, and the management of their parties is highly creditable.

—In the Clark Court of Common Pleas last week, the case of John Johnson, charged with counterfeiting and having counterfeit apparatus in his possession was continued for trial. John Edwards, the "Picayune Varble," charged with piloting boats on the falls without license, was also continued for process. George Edwards was sentenced to the penitentiary two years and discharged for five for grand larceny; John Lewis, negro, penitentiary two years, discharged for larceny; John Anderson, negro, one year, discharged fine $100; T. Croxton, petit larceny, penitentiary eighteen months. Patrick Gill, John Hylner and G. Nutten were sent to the county jail for various short terms.

To Whom it may Concern.

MESSENGERS, HANKEY, HUGHES & CO.

Gentlemen:—As fires are becoming very frequent of late, and prove very disastrous, I would like to suggest some of the causes of the latter, and ask whom duty it is to remedy it. In the first place, when the company, the nearest to the fire gets the alarm, they generally "hitch up" after striking only one tap of the bell, and go out, sometimes without ringing any further alarm; the consequence of it is (the bells being so far apart) the other companies very often don't hear any alarm at all.

—The Atlanta, a small stern-wheeler which has been sunk near Vincennes for a long time, was raised on Wednesday and taken to Mount City for repairs.

—The Clipper, from Nashville, passed up yesterday, without stopping. She appeared to be in excellent condition.

Captain E. W. Gould's new St. Louis and New Orleans packet Napoleon, building at Madison, will be completed by the 20th instant.

—The Aid, which recently sank in St. Francis river, has been raised.

—The Lebanon passed down for Nashville, yesterday, with an excellent trip.

—There is a great quantity of freight accumulating at Evansville, for shipment South.

—The Braselot will abandon the Henderson trade, after Thursday next, and will resume it in the Memphis trade.

—The Dixie, will leave the city yesterday, and will leave direct for Leavenworth.

—The Little Oregon, Capt. Denehy, J. A. Lusk, clerk, in the U. S. mail and passenger packet for Henderson and at 100 points, this evening, at 5 o'clock.

—The Jacot-Strader, Capt. Dittman, in the mail and passenger packet for Cincinnati and the East to-day at noon.

—Capt. Ballard has chartered the steamer Eugene, a splendid light-draught vessel with a fine cabin, large and well-furnished staterooms, for the New Orleans and the Big Eagle, in the Louisville and Henderson mail line. The Eugene, in command of Capt. A. Ballard, will enter the trade on her first trip on Friday next.
